

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

MR. AND MRS. GILBERT R. BELNAP

Pretty Home Wedding Unites Two of Ogden's Popular Young People

Another pretty Ogden girl became a bride this week when Miss Margaret Helen Shupe, daughter of Mrs. P. R. Shupe, and Grant C. Bishop, son of Mr. John Bishop of Ogden, were married at the home of the bride's mother, 722 Twenty-sixth street.

The Shupe home was converted into a veritable garden of roses, violets and huge chrysanthemums with American flags in profusion and arranged throughout the rooms in artistic manner.

The wedding ceremony occurred in the parlor of the home and here a color scheme of yellow was carried out to a nicety with large vases, jardinières and baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns placed effectively. Yellow chrysanthemums with satin ribbon bands of yellow formed a bower beneath which the bride and groom stood. The bride, an exceptionally attractive brunette, was lovely in a gown fashioned of white duchess satin and georgette crepe with trimmings of pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses with ribbon streamers and ferns. Mrs. E. L. Tarlette of Salt Lake City and a sister of the bride wore a dainty gown of pale blue georgette with lace trimmings and carried an exquisite bouquet of pink Madam Ward roses. Clarence E. Childs acted as best man to the groom.

At the hour of eight, Mrs. Maude Lloyd struck the first note of the Mendelssohn wedding march and the bridal party formed under the bower.

PARCEL SHOWER FOR POPULAR BRIDE

Mrs. H. P. Hantz entertained a delightful parcel shower Friday evening at her home, 2201 Lincoln avenue in honor of Mrs. Lewis M. Hall.

Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Roland Farr and Miss Mildred Burkland. Various games were played, honors being awarded to Miss Loretta Loughran, Mrs. Joe Alkema and Lillian Baker.

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. H. P. Hantz, assisted by the Misses Loretta Loughran, Elvira Burkland and Eileen Leavitt. The invited guests were: Misses Nan and Hannah Elmdun, Bonnie Wingo, Sadie Brooker, Mildred and Elvira Burkland, Lillian Baker, Loretta Loughran, Eileen Leavitt and Dorothy Farr and Mesdames Joe Alkema, Priscilla Preshaw, Roland Farr, Earle Furness, H. P. Hantz and Lewis M. Hall.

Mrs. Lewis Hall was formerly Miss Margaret May Longhnan and a bride of last week. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received.

PRETTY WEDDING ON WEDNESDAY

Yellow and white chrysanthemums and ferns arranged in artistic manner throughout the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morley, 147 Twenty-seventh street, made a pretty setting for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Alford Morley and Con J. Wilson last Wednesday evening, November 28. Vases and baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums greeted one in the parlor and dining room on the tables and in every nook and corner.

Early in the evening the guests arrived to be present at the wedding ceremony, which occurred promptly at 8 o'clock, Bishop George Browning of the Second ward officiating.

The bride was winsome in a dainty dress of white satin and georgette with lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of roses, while the bridesmaid, Miss Ellen Morley, wore an attractive gown of yellow tulle and georgette crepe. The groom was attended by Ray Butterfield. With lovely bouquets of large yellow and white chrysanthemums at either side, the bride party made a charming picture, the bride in her gown of white and the bridesmaid in yellow veiling with the flowers in attractiveness.

Following the wedding ceremony a pleasant evening was spent and a delicious wedding supper was served. At each guest's plate was a spray of green fern, while in the center of the tables were pretty bouquets of chrysanthemums. A large wedding cake graced the center of the table where the bride party was seated.

The following were invited: Mrs. Miss Lela Johnson of Salt Lake City spent Thanksgiving day in Ogden with Dr. and Mrs. Reinhold Kamler.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated in Pretty Affair in Fourth Ward Hall

An elaborate reception last evening in the Fourth ward amusement hall marked the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Belnap, two of Ogden's best known and highly respected citizens and was quite the most auspicious event of the week in society.

The amusement hall was filled with relatives and friends of this venerable couple and from the opening of the program at 7:30 o'clock until nearly 12 an enjoyable time was spent.

In preparation for the memorable event, the ward hall had been profusely decorated with beautiful golden chrysanthemums, hanging over the idea of the golden wedding celebration. The flowers were clustered in large baskets and jardinières and set at intervals around the sides of the hall while attached to the curtains and draped from the ceiling and along the balcony rail were myriads of golden hearts centered with the figure "50". In an especially arranged and artistically decorated corner, formed of Navaho rugs and American flags and made comfortable with pretty cushions, were seated the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Belnap. Here they received the many relatives and friends who had been bidden to make merry this anniversary affair. At each side of the cozy corner were large bouquets of golden chrysanthemums and above, were festoons of golden hearts entwined with ferns.

Promptly at 7:30 the program was opened with the invocation by Bishop E. A. Olsen after which everyone joined in singing "America." The address of welcome was splendidly given by R. C. Belnap, Mrs. Ethel Belnap Barker read a poem entitled "Golden Wedding," written by herself for the occasion. Everyone enjoyed the always popular song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," beautifully sung by Mrs. Mary Farley. This was followed by a sketch of the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Belnap by their daughter, Mrs. Weltha Belnap Marriott and her sister, Mrs. G. R. Belnap both gave a short talk and Mrs. Maud Belnap Kimball sang a song written for the occasion by Oliver Belnap entitled, "You are Nearer and Dearer to Me."

A sketch of the life of the Belnap family was read by Hyrum Belnap after which everyone joined in singing, "Come, Come Ye Saints." In an appropriate speech of presentation, Mr. Vincent Belnap gave to Mr. Gilbert Belnap a gold watch and chain and to Mrs. Belnap an exquisite gold ring with ruby setting, presented by the brothers and sisters of the honored couple.

The program was followed by an elaborate banquet. The long tables were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns and golden hearts. R. C. Belnap acted as toastmaster and the following responded: Francis M. Belnap, "Big Brother Gil and His Wife"; David O. McKay, "The Belnaps as Friends"; Mrs. Joseph Ballantyne, "The Belnap Girls and Their First School Teacher"; Mrs. Harry Barrows, "The Belnaps as Neighbors"; Hyrum Belnap, a monologue; John Belnap, "Greetings of the Evening." A song entitled, "Hard Times Come Again No More," was enthusiastically sung by everyone, closing one of the most entertaining events ever held in the Fourth ward and one which will long be remembered by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Belnap were the recipients of many lovely gifts from friends and relatives, indicative of their love and esteem for these delightful people who have made Ogden their home for many years. The sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Belnap are: Mrs. Sarah Belnap Eldredge, Mrs. Addie Belnap Ballantyne, Mr. Roswell C. Belnap, Mrs. Weltha Belnap Marriott and Mrs. Maud Belnap Kimball, all of Ogden. Sixteen grand children also are ardent admirers of their grand parents.

FOR MISS SIMS

Miss Hasseltine Sims of Salt Lake is an Ogden visitor at the home of Miss Helen Cortez, 535 Twenty-seventh street. Miss Sims formerly resided in Ogden and many of her former friends are entertaining her during her stay with Miss Cortez.

Last evening the Misses Dorothy and Ovedla Holtha entertained at a dinner party in compliment to Miss Sims and on Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner and daughters gave a dinner in her honor. Eight girl friends were present.

AT THE OGDEN HIGH SCHOOL THIS WEEK

Wednesday of this week at the Ogden High school a Thanksgiving program of unusual merit was given. The event was preceded by a short address by Dr. E. G. Gowan, state superintendent of public instruction.

Opening the program was a splendid rendition of the "Foot and Peasant" overture by the school orchestra, directed by Prof. Marcellus Smith. In the orchestra are the following young musicians:

Violins, Wendell Ogden, Gladys Richardson, Charles Guernsey, Phil Golbrausen, Charles Wheeler, Reed Vowles, Grace Burton, Harry Lyon, Doris Proudfitt, Annette Cunningham, Jim Macbeth, Harold Carmen, Glen Perrins, Bernard Perrins, Harry Dorloff; cellos, Avon Rich and Mary Plut; clarinet, Miss Shinnery; flute, Roy Guernsey; bass, Darwin Robinson, cornet, Victor Olson; trombone, Harry Bagley, and piano, Vera De Lamater.

Several other selections were given, including "Spring Beautiful Spring," by Linke, and an especially arranged selection by a string orchestra. Dramatic art pupils proved their ability also, Fred Conway recited "Thanksgiving Blessing," while Miss Vera De Lamater gave "The Meaning of Thanksgiving This Year." "The Footpath to Peace" was the title of an article by Donald Gibson and Miss Ruth Gibson read an original poem. Lewis Wallace gave the funny story of

"Mr. Dooley on the Grippe," and Caesar Franz read "Requiem."

Another delightful event of the week at the High school was the fifteenth annual Thanksgiving dance on Wednesday evening when the girls' association entertained. The hall was made lovely for the occasion with pretty baskets of pink roses suspended from the ceiling while bluebirds in pale shades were arranged in artistic manner. Miss Thatcher's orchestra gave a program of the latest dance numbers and tempting and cool refreshments were served. A goodly number of young folks attended this affair.

TO SPEAK IN OGDEN

Father Murphy, one of the best informed men on the present war in Europe and who has visited and resided in and near where the armies of all the warring countries are at present engaged in a terrific struggle, will be an Ogden visitor next Monday when he will give an address in the Knights of Columbus hall in the Fraternity building. Father Murphy has traveled extensively and resided for some time in Venice, Italy. Everyone is invited to hear him Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

COMEDY DRAMA AT ORPHEUM MONDAY

The Weber academy dramatic club will present the comedy-drama "Strongheart" at the Orpheum on Monday and Tuesday nights, under the direction of Prof. T. Earl Pardoe.

The cast includes some of the local talent of the city and Director Pardoe states that the production promises to be a very good entertainment. The proceeds are to go to a benefit fund for the soldiers of the academy now in the national army.

He also announces that the play will be staged on a most pretentious scale, with all the settings and paraphernalia similar to the ones used in the original production of Mr. DeMille's great play. The story is written around the life on a college campus in one of the acts there is a football game and Mr. Pardoe has succeeded in getting permission to use the equipment of the University of Utah team for the staging of this scene.

Special permission to use the play had to be gained from Mr. DeMille before the production could be staged and this permission came Thursday from Mr. DeMille, who is at present special scenario writer for the Lasky picture producers. The few who have seen the rehearsals predict that it will be fully equal to the road show production.

THAT HOOVERIZED DINNER.

Mr. Editor: I am sure you will be glad to hear of a certain Hooverized Thanksgiving dinner enjoyed out in the city of Hooper by some Ogden families, to-wit: Prof. J. A. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Moore and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Smith with Aileen and Dayrel; Mr. and Mrs. Jay A. Smith with Douglas and Allison; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, all packed themselves into two Fords and one auto and "hooverized" themselves to the city of Hooper, where Paul K. Smith and wife, with Pauline and Kenneth, and Miss Drew of Idaho, anxiously awaited their coming.

Having reached the city, and carefully taken the street number, No. 23 on Skiddoo avenue, the "hull shooten match" disembarked and as many of them as could get into the house entered and the remainder liked themselves to the city garage and waited the summons to Hooverize.

About this time Mr. and Mrs. Adam Russell—now, everybody knows Adam, for you have read about him; he was the first man—well this Adam is the first man out at Hooper. Well, Adam and Mrs. Russell came in with the Hooverized turkey, but when the ladies went to put it on the table it was discovered that Mrs. Paul K. had so much on the table that the Hooverized turkey was passed around and after twenty-one had fed sumptuously from him several baskets of fragments still remained. Much more might be said on this subject, but when twenty-one had eaten a Thanksgiving dinner off one turkey, we leave your readers to figure out the saving to the conservation fund and report to Mr. Hoover.

Drama Club

Next Saturday, December 3, the Drama club will meet in the Fine Arts room at the Weber academy with Mrs. T. Earl Pardoe and Mrs. Clyde Greenwell as hostesses.
